PRIVACY STATEMENT

Botany Bay Family History Society Inc. is very conscious of its obligation to comply with privacy legislation and to respect the privacy of its members. However, the nature of family history research involves the exchange of information and knowledge and contact with other members who may be able to help you. We will seek your consent to the release to others of any personal information that we hold such as your address, phone number, email address and surnames being researched. Your personal details will not be included in any published database or other publication without your specific authority. You have the right to know what information about you is held by us and to withdraw your permission for release of information at any time by notification in writing to the Society at its postal address.

CODE OF ETHICS

Respectful, ethical, inclusive behaviour is core to the values held and promoted by Botany Bay Family History Society Inc. The behaviour of individuals using and/or working at our facilities must always demonstrate respect and care for others both in the manner of personal interaction and the ways in which information is handled and distributed. The association will continue to provide a friendly and supportive environment for individuals conducting, collating and sharing family research.

The association, its committee, volunteers and members will, at all times:

- Be respectful of fellow researchers and visitors to our facilities and our meetings
- Speak respectfully and encourage inclusion and thoughtfulness in all interactions
- Respect the opinions of other members and treat them all with equal respect
- Comply with the laws of copyright, observing the legal rights of copyright owners, by copying or distributing any part of their works only with their permission, or to the extent allowed under the copyright laws fair use provisions
- Respect the feelings of others who do not want information about themselves or deceased members of their family to be published, referenced or linked on a web site.
- Comply with privacy laws and not publish the personal details of living people without their specific permission
- Inform people who provide information about their families of the ways it may be used, carefully recording and observing any conditions they may impose on its use.
- Not publish any information of a sensitive nature that would cause hurt or embarrassment to anyone
- Not publish or publicise as fact anything known to be false, doubtful or unproved, nor be a party, directly or indirectly to such action by others
- Always credit authors of information, identify sources for all information and cite only those documents personally used
- Act in a way that ensures the reputation of our association and its members is maintained
