FamilySearch is non-profit, dedicated to helping people connect with their ancestors and discover their stories. But who is FamilySearch? What do we do and why? How can we help you find your ancestors? This presentation will address the answers to these questions and help you more successfully use FamilySearch to find your ancestors.

Diane is an Accredited Genealogist[®] and a Certified GenealogistSM. She has a Bachelors degree in History with an emphasis in Family History and Genealogy and a Masters of Business Administration. She has worked for FamilySearch for the past twenty-four years as a British Reference Consultant, British Reference Unit Supervisor, Customer Experience Manager, FamilySearch Genealogical Community Services Manager, Director Genealogical Services, Director of the Family History Library and FamilySearch Centers worldwide, and is currently Director of the Family History Library and Senior Vice President of the Help Division for FamilySearch. She enjoys spending time in the outdoors and traveling with her husband Mike.
