

Botany Bay Family History Society

presents

Mary Small

SYDNEY CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS 1888

Mary Small was born and educated in England then studied in London to be a Speech Therapist. She immigrated by ship to Australia in 1962 She is the published author of many books for children.

A long time member of U3A (University of the Third Age), Mary is particularly interested in Australian history.

Mary will speak on Sydney Centennial Celebrations in 1888 When Australia was celebrating the Centenary of 1788-1888, there was a state banquet in the city, opening of Centennial Park, many grand public building were completed, and the public were entertained by wonderful attractions in the aquariums at Manly, Coogee and Bondi beaches.

Wednesday 1st May

7.30pm

Elouera Room

Gymea Tradies

More info: www.botanybayfhs.org.au

or Phone: 9523 8948

FREE.

VISITORS WELCOME