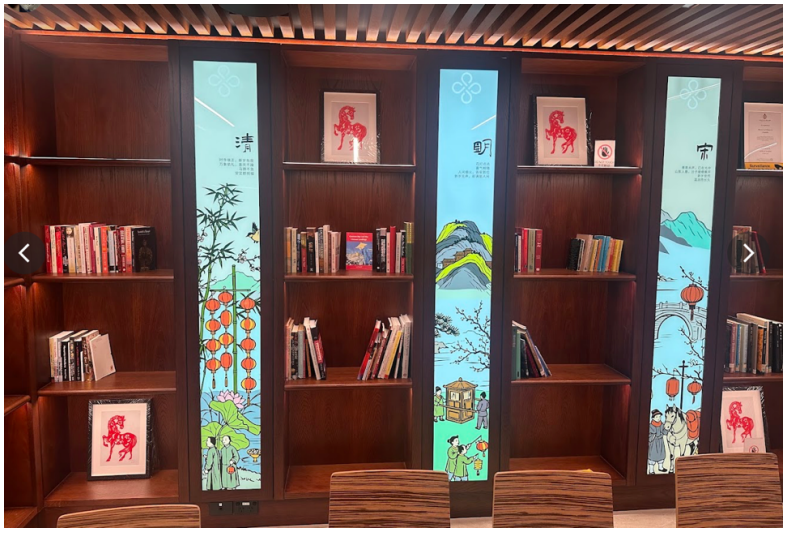
Museum of Chinese in Australia Tour With Leonie Bell

Thursday 19 November



Explore Sydney's newest museum a short walk from Central Station. The Museum of Chinese in Australia is dedicated to sharing and preserving the rich history, traditions, and culture of Chinese Australians. By exploring and explaining stories about the community, we want to foster a deeper understanding of its contribution to the Australian way of life.

Location: 744 George Street, Haymarket, NSW, 2000
