KAREN DE BRUYNE

Beyond INDIA

WEDNESDAY
4th NOVEMBER
7.30pm AEDT ZOOM

A qualified, professional genealogist with over 25 years experience Karen de Bruyne is based in London.

The Honourable East India Company was founded at the end of the 16th century and in 1600 Elizabeth I gave it exclusive rights to trade to India and the Far East. The first trading post was set up in Surat in 1607. Charles II extended the company's charter and its influence in India grew so that by the end of the 18th century it controlled the whole country.

Karen will focus on records and sources available for the places the HEIC "ruled" outside of India using examples from her own family history to demonstrate how these sources can help us learn more about our family's lives.
