WEDNESDAY 1st APRIL

7.30pm ZOOM

Dr Fleur Creed, a descendent of convicts, bounty immigrants and free settlers who settled in NSW and Van Dieman's Land, inherited her passion for family history from her father who researched and wrote about families in the Queanbeyan district before Canberra was sited. She has completed many courses and is currently undertaking the SAG Diploma of Family History Studies.

Fleur has registered a One Place Study of the small community of Dallarnil in rural Queensland and is using WeAre.xyz to display this study along with her family research. This site encourages the sharing of family stories.

Join us as Fleur introduces the fundamentals of using WeAre.xyz for our family history.
